Opening Prayer

In the name of the Blessed Trinity of Life and Light and Love.

Amen.

From Psalm 36.5-10 (CW)

Your love, O God, reaches to the heavens and your faithfulness to the clouds.

Your righteousness stands like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep;
you, O God, shall save both humankind and beast.

How precious is your loving mercy, O God!
All mortal flesh shall take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

They shall be satisfied with the abundance of your house;
they shall drink from the river of your delights.

For with you is the well of life and in your light shall we see light.

O continue your loving-kindness to those who know you and your righteousness to those who are true of heart.

From John 2.1-11 (NRSV)

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine gave out,
the mother of Jesus said to him,
'They have no wine.'
And Jesus said to her,
'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me?
My hour has not yet come.'

His mother said to the servants,
'Do whatever he tells you.'
Now standing there were six stone water-jars
for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.
Jesus said to them,
'Fill the jars with water.'
And they filled them up to the brim.
He said to them,
'Now draw some out to take to the chief steward.'
So they took it.

When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from he called the bridegroom and said to him,
'Everyone serves the good wine first,
and then the inferior wine after the guests are drunk.
But you have kept the good wine until now.'

Jesus did this first of his signs in Cana of Galilee,
and revealed his glory;
and his disciples believed in him.

Reflection

We look back over the Bible readings and explore any thoughts or questions that come to mind.

Prayer

We take our reading and reflection into prayer, praying especially for those on our hearts or minds today.

*We close our time of prayer with the Lord's Prayer,
and a blessing for all for whom we pray,
for one another and for ourselves.*

Come, O Christ.

Open our minds to your presence,
our hearts to your love.

And bless us in waking us
to love, joy and peace, patience, kindness and generosity,
faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Let us bless God.

Amen.

If there is anything you would like to talk through any time, just send me a message.
